

A great resource for teaching the /r/ sounds:

<https://www.home-speech-home.com/articulation-games-for-the-r-sound.html>

Practice resources:

<https://www.home-speech-home.com/vocalic-r-words.html>

http://mommyspeechtherapy.com/wp-content/downloads/articulation/r-final\_words.pdf

http://mommyspeechtherapy.com/wp-content/downloads/articulation/r-medial\_words.pdf

<https://heatherspeechtherapy.com/worksheets/>

These are all great resources that I use for therapy and homework. Some of them, you will need to navigate the page and locate the sounds that you would like to practice. I would start with initial /r/ sounds and then move to vocalic /r/ sounds. Start at the word level and then move into short phrase and sentences.